

In celebration of NACLI's 40th Anniversary, we present Free Talks @ NACLI

Co-organised with the Civil Service College Toastmasters Club

Speaking Confidently, the Toastmaster's Way

Are great speakers made or born?

Think of famous speakers and names like Martin Luther King Jr, Abraham Lincoln and our Senior Minister Lee Kuan Yew come to mind. How is it that these great speakers can move an audience simply with words? We invite you to come unravel the secrets to public speaking at our Free Talk.

What can you expect from this session?

- Learn useful tips on speaking confidently from a highly experienced speaker, Distinguished Toastmaster Richard Sng.
- Witness a mock 'Toastmasters Chapter Meeting' in motion and see how we can develop better speakers through the internationally-used system.
- Get inspired by a video excerpt of an award-winning speech made by Jim Key, winner of the 2003 World Championship of Public Speaking held in Atlanta, USA.

Date Saturday, 31 July 2004

Time 9.00 am - 12.00 pm

Venue Brickworks Auditorium @ NACLI
70 South Buona Vista Road, S118176

Admission Free (Available on a first-come-first-served basis)

Closing Date Wednesday, 21 July 2004
